Pew News

You'll notice that this edition of the Pew News is a different format to previous ones. We have tried to simplify the format to make it easier to print, so that it can be taken to friends and neighbours to make them aware of what is happening in our churches. Please feel free to print and hand these out.

Coffee Mornings across the Benefice

As we start to return to cautiously getting together again socially, we are aware that there are a number of coffee mornings planned, from August, across the Benefice.

Please let either Rev'd. Cath or Ralph know when these are so that we can publish them in the Pew News.

Until then we look forward to seeing you at our Tuesday get together on Zoom.

Covid Safety after 19th July 2021

You will all be aware that restrictions for social distancing and mask wearing in England change from Monday 19th July.

As a Benefice, we have taken the decision to continue to support our communities and maintain infection control measures. Posters will be displayed in our churches with the rules we would like everyone to follow to protect each other.
